

NUTRICIA NORDIC ALLERGY SYMPOSIUM

ACTIVE ALLERGY MANAGEMENT, GOING BEYOND SYMPTOM RELIEF

March 15, 2018 – World Trade Center, Stockholm

Register:

At trippus.net/NordicAllergySymposium2018 before end of February

Chairs:

Professor Maria Jenmalm, PhD, Sweden

Associate Professor Robert Saalman, MD, PhD, Sweden

Speakers:

Associate Professor John Penders, PhD, Maastrich, Netherlands

Professor Maria Jenmalm, PhD, Linköping, Sweden

Associate Professor Christina West, MD, PhD, Umeå, Sweden

Dr. Adam Fox, MD, Paediatric Allergist, London, United Kingdom

Preliminary programme:

10.00	Welcome – Nutricia Introduction – Robert Saalman, Sweden
10.15	Factors Shaping the Establishment of Infant's Gut Microbiota – John Penders, Netherlands
11.00	The role of the infant gut microbiota in shaping immune development during childhood – Maria Jenmalm, Sweden
11.45	Lunch and exhibition
12.45	The gut microbiota as a target for treatment and prevention of allergic disease – Christina West, Sweden
13.30	Clinical evidence for the role of synbiotics in allergy management – TBC
14.00	Coffee and exhibition
14.30	Active Management of Food Allergy – Adam Fox, United Kingdom
15.45	Summary and closing
16.00	End